REPORT NO.

1. The village of Volujak is 11 km northwest of Sofia. Various private houses and a farm building were seized there and rebuilt into a barracks, which is now occupied by a battalion of Bulgarian infantry belonging to a regiment stationed in Sofia. The capacity of the barracks is 600 to 650 men.
2. The battalion is a training unit. One company is devoted to training drivers, a second to training tank drivers and the third to heavy weapons training. The men receiving training belong to the classes 1925 to 1928.
